

Subject: Protection of Copyright

Purpose:

To inform our patrons about Title 17 of the United States Code, as well as other federal legislation pertaining to the copyright of materials.

Policy:

Most of the audiovisual materials purchased by Montgomery-Floyd Regional Library do not have public performance rights and is intended for personal and home use only. For movies that are shown in the library as part of library programming, the library has purchased a movie license allowing for a public showing, or has otherwise secured permission.

The copying of materials from the library's collection may be subject to the copyright law. Montgomery-Floyd Regional Library is not responsible for patron's duplication of materials from its collections. It is the library patron's responsibility to guard against the infringement of rights that may be held by others, and for securing waivers and permissions as required by law. It is the patron's obligation to determine and satisfy copyright or other use restrictions when duplicating, printing or copying materials from the library's collections. Patrons are reminded that these materials are provided by the Montgomery-Floyd Regional Library for non-profit educational, personal or scholarly purposes and that transmission or reproduction of protected items beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright holders.
